Evidence of Need (provide a statement below or attach documentation) In addition to the majors reported above, the department also offers a popular minor option. The department contributes courses to General Studies, and has an extensive undergraduate research program. Many of the graduates continue on to graduate school.

Justification if the program is below CCPE thresholds (provide a statement below or attach documentation) The BA program is identical to the BS program, with the exception of a foreign language requirement. The BSE/BAE options are the same – the student selects the option which best fits their second subject endorsement area.
