

Academic Dishonesty Incident Report

The University of Nebraska at Kearney believes in academic integrity of its students. This form should be used whenever an instance of academic dishonesty (i.e. plagiarism or cheating) occurs in a class offered at UNK regardless of the severity of the infraction. Offenses are recorded and handled by the professor. All offenses are filed in the Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs. *Faculty may check that file at the time of the infraction.

Student's Name: _____ NU ID#: _____
Last First MI

Student Classification (circle one): Freshman    Sophomore    Junior    Senior    Graduate

Name of Faculty: _____ Course: _____
(e.g. Chem 160-04)

Please rate the severity of the infraction.

1	2	3	4	5
minor				major

Note: It is expected that the rating of the severity of the infraction should increase as the level of the course increases. For example, a minor infraction (1) in a 100-level class should be considered a moderately severe infraction in a 400-level class.

Describe the academic dishonesty infraction:

Penalty assessed:

Signing indicates that the student was notified of the infraction and the consequences. Procedures for contesting a punishment are described in the student handbook.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Check this box if the student refused to sign.

Faculty Signature: _____ Date: _____

*A copy of this form must be turned into the Department, the Dean, and the Office of the Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs.