III. New Business:
   1. Course Proposals (new):
      Moratorium on new course proposals continued for 2019-20 AY (approved at 9/5/19 GSC meeting). If a department feels a new course is needed then justification will need to be provided as to why it needs to be included in the current General Studies Program.
   2. Review/Revision of General Studies Program
      a) Campus forum(s) debrief
      b) Feedback / comments from GS for Faculty discussion board
      c) Next steps
   3. Assessment and GS Program:
      a) Initial results from fall 2019 Written Communication and Oral Communication course assessment
      b) Update on syllabi collection / review spring 2020
   4. GSC Governance Document (College merger and updating GSC Governance Document)

IV. Other:

Information from Faculty Senate Academic Affairs – changes to existing GS courses

FAMS 160: Personal Money Management – prefix change to FIN 160. The course, Personal Money Management, is now housed in the Accounting, Finance & Economics department

PSY 250: Behavioral Statistics. Changing from lecture, lab to lecture only (hours being reduced from 4 to 3). This change reflects a revision in how the content will be covered; previous course and lab materials will be integrated into the lecture.

Next regular meeting: Thursday, March 5, 2020, 3:30 p.m., Warner Conference Room
