Faculty, Administration, and Staff:
Dr. Nathan Barry, Construction Management, was awarded the Associated Schools of Construction Region 4 Outstanding Teaching award at the annual Region 4 ASC Conference and Student Competition in October, 2013. Region 4 is comprised of universities with Construction Management programs from Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, South Dakota, North Dakota and Minnesota. Dr. Barry’s application materials will be forwarded to the national ASC for the National Outstanding Teaching Award for spring, 2014.
HELP Advisory Committee and the National Housing Endowment Board of Trustees recognizes the Construction Management Program-Kearney on being awarded a grant of $64,000 over four years.
Dr. Jake Messersmith, Management, served as a judge for the Rural Futures Conference Undergraduate Student Poster Competition in Lincoln this fall.
Dr. Sri Seshadri, Marketing, was in the news regarding developing professionalism in students. http://www.nebraska.tv/story/23876020/unk-professor-prevents-texting-in-class

CBT Impact
What are you doing? Where are you going? What impact are you making? Tell me, please!

Students:
Construction Management (CM) students from the UNK student chapter of the American Concrete Institute (ACI) participated in the Fall Conference and an international competition in Phoenix, AZ October 19-21. The team representing UNK included Austin Ducker, O’ Neill, NE, Austin White, Orleans, NE, Jared Petit, Sidney, NE, and Edgar Almanza, Imperial, NE. The competition problem statement was to design a concrete mix (primarily for parking lots) that would allow rainwater to pass through the concrete into the substrate, rather than run off of the concrete, thereby contributing to sustainable construction by eliminating the typical erosion problems and pollution of water runoff. Documentation of design mix calculations (via EXCEL), a written report/presentation, and actual testing of concrete specimens determined the scoring protocol for the competition. Out of 34 international teams (university engineering programs), UNK’s team ranked 10th for calculations and written report, and 16th for split tensile strength results. UNK was the only Nebraska institution represented in the competition. Mr. Stan Poff, Kearney Concrete, has been important to the UNK CM program by providing donations for materials for the competition specimens.

The student representatives on the CBT Student Advisory Board have participated in two focus groups this week to provide input regarding CBT and UNK marketing efforts.

Michael Lechowicz from Omaha represented the Enactus Team at the Rural Futures Conference Undergraduate Student Poster Competition in Lincoln this fall. He received co-first place and $750 for the Rural Revitalization Poster he presented. Michael has donated his winnings to Enactus.

Tell me about the great things your students are doing!

Please remember to forward your news items to Marsha Yeagley so that proper coverage can be provided. Your news may be added to the next Dean’s List, and/or posted on the "Notables" section of the website, or the Dean's page of the site. When appropriate, a news release will be sent to students' hometown newspapers and/or the Hub, as well as covering the item in the June publication of the College of B&T Annual Report. Remember that what you and your students do "makes a difference." In order to send the press release to the students' hometown newspaper, please provide the hometown. Help us in the recruitment and retention process by informing Marsha of your news.
Send to: yeagleym@unk.edu.
Please only send information regarding papers and presentations after the fact.
