Dean's List
College of Business and Technology
Monday, November 26, 2012

Administration, Faculty and Staff:
CBT students recognized the following outstanding faculty at a Mortar Board Faculty Appreciation dinner: Dr. Ross Taylor, Dr. Sri Seshadri, Dr. Greg Broekemier, Marketing/MIS, Sherrie Dusch, Accounting/Finance, and Dr. Michelle Fleig-Palmer, Management.

NTV Interview. Watch and listen to Dr. Michelle Fleig-Palmer and Deana Beck at this link: http://www.nebraska.tv/global/story.asp?s=20041738

Dr. Laurie Swinney and Bruce Elder J.D., Accounting/Finance, recently had the article “Promoting Professionalism: Lessons from the Medical and Legal Professions” published in Research on Professional Responsibility and Ethics in Accounting.

Dr. Nate Barry and Angela Hollman, Industrial Technology, hosted a Career Fair recently.

Generational Influences in the Workplace
Lunch and Learn

* Thursday, December 6, 2012 at 12:15 -1:15 p.m., Kearney Area Chamber of Commerce, 1007 Second Avenue consider attending the Lunch and Learn “Generational Influences in the Workplace presented by Dr. Tami Moore, Professor and Program Director of Family Studies.
(At any point in time, a workplace can have employees from at least 4 different generations-25-35,36- 45, 46-55 and 56-65. Do the generational nametags, like Generation X, Baby Boomers, and Baby Boomlets have any basis in reality? Generations, as a concept, is very real. And those differences can be problematic if not acknowledged. Generational Influences in the Workplace will explore these types of differences and the strategies that may be useful for management of those differences.)
Seating is limited and reservations are required. The cost to attend this lunch and learn is $15.00, which includes your meal. You can pay in advance or at the door. To reserve your lunch and seat, call the Chamber at 308-237-3101. If you reserve a spot but are unable to attend, you must cancel your reservation 24 hours before the event or you will be billed. If you have any questions, contact Leslie Means (308) 237-4671 or lmeans@kearneycoc.org

Read about the Central Nebraska Business Idea Contest Results: http://www.unk.edu/academicaffairs/enews.aspx?id=60822
Need coffee? Be supportive of experiential learning by getting it at Brewed Awakening, the non-profit student business located at the east end of the UNK Health & Sports Center/Main St. hallway. The entity was started by, Enactus (formerly SIFE) student group, and marketed by the American Marketing Association.

Students:

What are your students doing that is noteworthy? Please let me know: yeagleym@unk.edu. Please include their hometowns so that a press release can be sent for recognition and potential recruitment.

Internships and Experiential Learning Highlight
Ashley Salinas, Senior in Family Studies, advisor Jeanne Stolzer
Ashley is completing her family studies internship with Family Advocacy Network in Kearney. The Family Advocacy Network is a comprehensive, victim-focused program that provides a coordinated response to abuse cases by law enforcement, Health and Human Services, county prosecutors and healthcare professionals. Ashley identified her career goals to include wanting to work closely with children as an advocate during crisis situations. At the Family Advocacy Network, Ashley has been able to view forensic interviews, learn about medical examinations, and also become educated on referral sources for adults and children who have experienced various forms of abuse, neglect, or violence. She also has gotten a broad exposure to a variety of ethics and confidentiality scenarios, as well as learning how to work as a professional in all situations. Ashley will graduate in December 2012 and plans to continue her work in child advocacy.

Marsha K. Yeagley
Senior Lecturer, Marketing/MIS Department
Coordinator of College Communications
West Center Building W241
University of Nebraska at Kearney
Kearney, NE 68849
308-865-8345