University of Nebraska at Kearney
College of Education
Criteria Summary Sheet
(The purpose of this summary sheet is to assist faculty as they prepare their application portfolio for advancement in rank and / or tenure. This summary sheet does not substitute for the guidelines; faculty are responsible for reading, understanding, and meeting the COE Rank & Tenure Guidelines in their entirety)

Promotion to Senior Lecturer

General Criteria:

____  5 years of excellence in teaching at UNK as Lecturer

OR

____  advanced academic preparation, including doctorate or other terminal degree; or other relevant experience
   Specify: _____

Teaching Criteria:

  Student Evaluation Average

____  Must average 4.00 or above during time period under review

____  If not, Peer Review Committee letter must state whether other teaching related materials support advancement

Check your choice for 3 unduplicated items that indicate excellence in teaching:

- Positive Peer Review based on Classroom Visitation
- Syllabi for all courses
- Sample curriculum materials
- Teaching Awards
- 3 letters of support from former students
- Advising evaluations (if used by the department)
- Mentorship (e.g. scholarly work with students, student placement in discipline-related work or graduate schools, sponsorship of student organization related to teaching, evaluations of clinica instruction)
- Internal or external funded grant to enhance teaching
- Presentations related to teaching
- Publications related to teaching
- Other teaching activities endorsed by department peer review committee:

Specify: _____