The first step in operating the HoverCam is to turn on the HoverCam itself. If the HoverCam is not powered on, it will not display images nor interface with the HoverCam software.

Step 1: Unfold the camera arm. Press the power button on the HoverCam base. The screen on the base should illuminate and display the image.