Series Line Up

Professional Development Series Description:
This 1-day workshop provides school-based mental health professionals, administrators, security professionals, and other educators the knowledge and resources to help them establish and sustain comprehensive school safety and crisis prevention and preparedness efforts. With updated research and strategies, this workshop makes a clear connection between ongoing school safety and crisis preparedness. It also will emphasize the unique needs and functions of school teams and the steps involved in developing these teams, including a model that integrates school personnel and community provider roles. The workshop also explores how to prepare for school crises by developing, exercising, and evaluating safety and crisis plans (NASP, 2016).

November 18 - A Day of Best Practices in Addiction Counseling: Working with a Criminal Justice Population by Tom Maxson, MS, LIMHP, LADC, SAP, MAC, Psychological Assistant & Tina Chasek, LIMHP, LADC, LPC

Professional Development Series Description:

This workshop examines best practices in addiction counseling in two areas, clinical supervision and recovery management. The morning will focus on best practices in addiction counseling supervision including the unique challenges that come from working with a criminal justice population. A model of addiction counseling supervision will be shared as well as tools to use with supervisees. The afternoon will focus on recovery management and a new approach to relapse prevention that is grounded in mindfulness. Research has increasingly shown that combining mindfulness practices with cognitive behavioral relapse prevention helps clients stay in recovery. This treatment approach will be explained along with how to use it with a criminal justice population.
