Residency as it relates to tuition is different than establishing residency for other purposes. A change in resident classification for tuition purposes is not granted automatically. As a state institution, the University of Nebraska must abide by Nebraska State Legislature policy as determined by the University of Nebraska, Board of Regents. These regulations provide the basis upon which University staff shall determine whether an individual qualifies as a Nebraska resident for tuition purposes. In some instances, it may be possible that an individual may qualify as a resident of Nebraska for one purpose (e.g. a Nebraska driver’s license) and still not meet the standards established by the Board of Regents for in-state resident status.

The University of Nebraska at Kearney (UNK) reserves the right to question and/or request a residency application and supporting documentation from any individual who wishes to be considered for resident tuition. Please Note: An individual who moves to Nebraska primarily to enroll in a post-secondary institution in Nebraska will be considered a nonresident for tuition purposes for the duration of their attendance.

An individual classified as a non-resident carries the burden of proof of eligibility for residency status when providing documentation to request resident tuition.

Non-Resident Classification
Students may be considered non-residents under the following situations:

- Did not graduate from a Nebraska high school.
- Do not hold U.S. Citizenship or the status of Permanent Resident, Asylee, or Refugee (as classified by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)).
- If the following has occurred within the 12 months immediately preceding the term for which residence classification is sought:
  - Have not established a home in Nebraska for a minimum of 12 months. This includes recent arrivals to Nebraska and moving to Nebraska primarily to enroll in a post-secondary institution.
  - Have been enrolled at any Nebraska institution more than half-time (per semester/term).

Applying for Resident Tuition
Students classified as non-residents can request reclassification by submitting a completed application with required supporting documentation. This application must be signed before a notary public attesting to the accuracy of the information. If it is determined that information on an application/affidavit has been falsified, the applicant may be subject to disciplinary action(s) before the applicant is permitted to continue to enroll. Such actions will be determined on an individual basis and may include disciplinary probation, suspension, expulsion or reimbursing the University for the difference between the tuition paid and the non-resident tuition rate.

The applicant must be admitted to the University and have an active student status. Failure to enroll or register for the term in which you are seeking residency will result in cancellation of the residency application and any approved resident status. Application must be completed by the last day to apply (applications that are determined to be incomplete after the deadlines listed below will be voided).

Application Process
Review the Residence Categories and information.
Complete the Application for Residence Classification for Tuition Purposes.
Gather copies of all required supporting documentation.
Submit the application with all required documentation to the appropriate Admissions Office prior to the deadline.

The Residency officer will review each application, along with documents submitted, in request for residency for tuition purposes. Once an individual has been enrolled at the University (or one of Nebraska’s state colleges) as a resident student, they will be afforded that privilege during the balance of that enrollment. The student must be readmitted and enrolled within a two year time period and must be currently residing in the state of Nebraska.

NOTE: At any time prior to the residency decision, the applicant is responsible for any payments due or late fees that may occur.

Appeals
Individuals who believe they have incorrectly been denied residence for tuition purposes may submit a Letter of Appeal along with any additional documentation to the Residency committee representative in the Admissions Office. Appeals are reviewed by the Residency Officer, and then forwarded to the Dean of Student Affairs or the Dean of Graduate Studies & Research.

Documentation
Refer to the instructions for each Residence Category and provide the requested documentation as indicated. The University reserves the right to request additional information documentation to support the residency application. Only the original notarized application will be accepted. For all other documents, please provide legible copies.
