

Additional Costs students will encounter as part of the requirements for completion of the degree.

NATA Membership – There is a cost for a student membership with the NATA. Membership is required for two specific reasons.

1. Students need to be active participants in their professional organization.
2. NATA membership provides for student access to the ATrack program. The ATrack program is the primary document and clinical tracking process the program uses for monitoring student progress through the program.

NATA Membership fees

Students will be instructed on the process for acquiring initial and ongoing membership.

Initial Non-certified student membership (July 1 – Dec. 31)	$60.00
Continuing annual student membership (Jan. 1 – Dec. 31)	$80.00

Criminal background check – This is a requirement for entrance into the program. This is done via an account provided to the program. The cost for the background check for international students may be different than for United States citizens. In the event a conviction related to public welfare is uncovered the program committee will determine the students' status and pathway through the program on an individual basis. All results of the background check will be confidential and will not be released to the public or to anyone other than the ATEP Committee.

Criminal background check fee:

United States resident/citizen student	$60.00
International resident/citizen student	$100.00 - $300.00 (depending on country)

External Testing – As part of the PE 499 Senior Seminar or PE 806 Graduate Seminar course, students will be required to engage in practice tests that are administered by external on-line formats.

Practice tests fee $30.00 each (2 tests will be required for the course)

BOC Test – Students will be required to challenge the Board of Certification examination as part of PE 499 or PE 806 seminar course and for completion of the degree program. BOC fees are as follow:

Application fee	$30.00
Exam fee	$330.00

Course Fees – There are courses that require an additional fee. These courses include:

Fees for these courses are subject to change via the university fee approval structure. Course fees will be assessed upon enrollment of each course.

Clothing – There are expectations that students will be required to adhere to specified attire within the variety of clinical settings provided for students. The program will provide “game-day” polo shirts for students to wear. Students will be expected to provide their own slacks and shoes that will accompany your game-day polo shirts. Students will also be required to be clothed in a manner that is acceptable within the professional setting. It is the responsibility of the student to provide any other clothing and shoes required. Students will be provided an opportunity to purchase “Loper” clothing at a discounted cost at designated times.

Approximate additional cost for required attire

$30.00 - $100.00 (Annually)

Immunizations – In the event additional immunizations should be required of students, it is the financial responsibility of the student to work within his/her medical provider to acquire them. The link to costs for services through UNK Student Health to include vaccinations is:
