

2005 No Limits Conference Photos

These are some of the pictures taken at the No Limits Women's Studies Conference at UNK during the presentations.

After the days events, we all met over at the Alumni House for a wonderful evening with a performance by humorist T. Marni Vos. T. Marni Vos is one of only seven women in 20 years to be a Finalist in the prestigious San Francisco International Stand-up Comedy Competition, where over 400 comics competed each year. She has performed on Life Time's "Girls Night Out" and opened for Jay Leno at the Comedy and Magic Club in Hermosa Beach.
