Absent: Dusty Newton, Deborah Bridges, James Rohrer.

Minutes for the February 17, 2010 meeting were reviewed and approved.

Samantha Post, Vice President of the Honors Student Advisory Board (HSAB) reported the events HSAB plans for spring. The Honors Semi-Formal dance will take place March 27th at 9PM in Martin Hall. There will be a D.J., dance and food. The Honors mugs have been delivered. Elections are coming up for new HSAB members for fall 2010-2011. April 29th at 6PM in Harmon Park HSAB will be hosting a BBQ. Hotdogs and hamburgers will be provided. There will be no pancake feed this semester.

Davis said that the discussion on the assessment of the selected Honors Senior Studies for 2009 will wait until the next meeting.

Davis asked which members would be remaining on the council for 2010-2011. The current members, Dimock, Frickel, Moore, Twigg and Tuttle said they would remain. These appointments are subject to change.

Davis reported to the council on Scholars Recognition Day which took place March 1st. This was the first time this event had been held in the spring for many years, due to too many conflicts in the fall. There was a luncheon for over 130 Nebraska high schools seniors and juniors. Rick Miller was the guest speaker.

Davis updated the council about Honors Advising & Registration for March 31st. The Honors students will register on myBlue from 7am to 12am for fall 2010. WebEASI will still be used for registering for summer 2010 classes.

Davis updated the council on HAE-early Honors Advising & Enrollment. This will be a one day event this year on Monday April 19th. So far the pool of students is at 35 with a maximum of 40 to 50. The normal SAE-Summer Advising & Enrollment staff will be present.

Davis updated the council about Junior Day which will take place Monday April 5th. It is a full day with a UNK staff information pane, tour of the campus, lunch, academic overview and academic sessions. At this time there are about 145 juniors and their parents signed up.

Davis reported on the Roosevelt Academy (RA) applications. Five UNK students have been approved for fall and 3 for the spring.

Frickel asked Davis about attending Honors Program regional conferences and national meetings as suggested in the recent APR. Davis replied that it would depend on the budget.

Meeting adjourned at 5:00 p.m. Respectfully submitted, JoLene Williams, Honors Secretary
