

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION VERIFICATION FORM
FOR UNIVERSITY HOUSING

The University of Nebraska at Kearney (“UNK” or the “University”) provides reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities who have a verifiable need for the reasonable accommodation. A reasonable accommodation is an exception to the usual rules, policies, practices, or services that a resident with a disability may need to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy University housing. The enclosed Reasonable Accommodation Request Form authorizes you to provide the information requested on this form.

PLEASE REVIEW THE ENCLOSED REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM THAT EXPLAINS THE STUDENT’S REQUEST FOR REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION AND THEN ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

The Fair Housing Act defines disability as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Under this definition, an impairment is a disability if it substantially limits the ability of the person to perform a major life activity as compared to the average person in the general population. The definition also takes into account any mitigating measures, such as medication or other treatment or therapies, the person is employing that may relieve the substantial limitations caused by the impairment. If the mitigating measure(s) eliminates the substantial limitations caused by the impairment, the person does not have a disability.

1. Does the resident have a disability under this definition?  Yes  No
2. Please identify the resident’s impairment(s) and describe how each impairment substantially limits his/her ability to perform a major life activity as compared to most people in the general population:
