Firefox uses its default search engine to perform a search. However, you can change the default engine to one of your choosing.

Instructions

1. Launch Firefox > Click the triangle ▼ by the magnifying glass > Change Search Settings.

2. In the Search window, click the triangle ▼ to open the list of the search engines > select your default search engine.

3. Close the Search window. Your change is automatically saved.