USE BLIND CARBON COPY (BCC) FOR STUDENT PRIVACY

Student email addresses are classified as non-directory information by the University of Nebraska Board of Regents, and therefore should not be shared. If you are sending the same email message to multiple students, use BCC to protect the student’s privacy by not revealing their email address to other recipients.