DON’T PLUG YOUR PHONE INTO A CHARGER YOU DON’T OWN

Public charging stations may be configured to upload malware on your phone and at the same time, data can also be downloaded from the mobile phone while the battery is getting charged.