INSTALL ANTI-VIRUS

Anti-virus software protects your computer from getting infected by computer viruses and keeps your computer from infecting others. Anti-virus software is considered the first line of defense against attacks. Without it, you face a high risk of being infected with a virus.