We hope that you are able to make Village Flats your home while pursuing your education at UNK and/or UNMC. Thank you for choosing the Village Flats Apartments! The following document includes university and Residence Life information as well as campus policies and procedures.

Please note - Residence Life policies and procedures may be modified upon written notice.

Mission Statement

The Office of Residence Life supports the UNK mission by providing students with a safe, well maintained environment in a community that values academic success, personal growth, and civic responsibility. The Office of Residence Life is here to:

ENGAGE – students early in their college experience to connect them to the university.

EDUCATE – through programming that is student centered, with an emphasis on personal growth, achievement, and leadership development.

EMPOWER – students to become lifelong learners who are confident leaders who are prepared for their future endeavors beyond UNK.

BELONG – in a “living/learning” community that compliments their educational experience.

Residency Requirement

The Board of Regents and the University of Nebraska at Kearney require all full-time students under the age of nineteen (19) on the first day of fall semester to live on campus for one academic year. This residency requirement serves important educational and developmental purposes. Students prosper in stable living environments that are close to academic resources and organized student activities that promote social interaction and exposure to new and diverse life experiences, and that afford supervision, counseling, and other assistance as may be needed. On-campus residency provides unparalleled opportunities for multi-dimensional student development, and is part-and-parcel of the university’s broad educational program.

UNK reserves the right to determine, designate, change/or restrict the utilization of University housing-managed facilities, including apartments, or areas within the facilities and grounds and to make and/or change resident assignments accordingly at any time.

The resident must read all housing information provided before signing this Apartment Contract. Residents who are under the age of 19 and qualify to live in University Village Flats must have a parent or legal guardian also read and acknowledge all housing information provided before signing the Apartment Contract. Typing in the parent/guardian’s name in the field on the Apartment Contract is required as well as entry of the resident’s NUID. By signing the Apartment Contract, the resident or parent/guardian understands and is obligated to abide by the terms. A letter will be sent via United States mail to the resident or parent/guardian’s address provided in the Apartment Contract, confirming the Apartment Contract.

By federal law and University policy, room assignments and room changes cannot be made on the basis of race, color, religion, handicap, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation; however, we do reserve the right to deny housing to those who have been convicted of a crime or have pending criminal charges.

Lock Outs

Residents are responsible for carrying their apartment key and UNK issued ID card at all times. If a resident should find themselves locked out of the building or their apartment, they should first call the Village Flats desk at 308-865-4840 to see if the RHC or a Desk Assistant is available to assist. The hours the desk is open with a Desk Assistant or the Community Security Officer (Th-Fr-Sa late hours) are: Monday-Wednesday 3:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Thursday-Friday 3:00 PM – 2:00 AM, Saturday 3:00 PM – 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM – 2:00 AM. If the RHC Office and the desk are closed, and it is between the business hours of 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM (Monday – Friday) call the Office of Residence Life at 308-865-8519. If it is after business hours and desk hours, or it is an emergency, contact UNK Police at 308-865-8911. Fines may be issued to the resident if lockouts occur on a consistent basis.

The following requirements apply when needing a lockout:

Littering/Trash

Improper disposal of personal trash is considered littering. Residents are responsible for the proper disposal of their trash in the dumpster located outside the building on the north side. In the event that a resident litters in a public area (i.e. hallway, stairwell, and lounge) or the surrounding grounds of the building, that student will be responsible for the cost of the cleanup. Apartment trash and litter found in common areas will result in disciplinary action.

Pets

Only non-dangerous fish are permitted in the apartments; all other pets are prohibited. Each apartment is allowed to have one aquarium no larger than 10 gallons. The cost of pest control and cleaning will be assessed to the resident if this policy is violated. Students who wish to seek an accommodation should contact Disability Services for Students.

No posting is to be done by individuals, but will be distributed from the Office of Residence Life to each hall staff for posting. It is important that residents are security conscious in the apartment, on the campus, and in the community.

Students should be familiar with safety precautions. Residents should be aware of their actions and the potential danger that could be inflicted on other persons or property. The violation of a safety policy will result in an apartment probation and/or termination of the Apartment Contract.

RESIDENCE LIFE AND UNIVERSITY CONDUCT PROCESS

Any time individuals of varying lifestyles come together to live in a community environment such as an apartment, rules and regulations such as those previously described become necessary. When violations of these rules and regulations occur, the Residence Life staff is responsible for determining if action should be taken to protect the welfare of the community and/or the physical maintenance of the apartments. The process by which action is taken comprises the Residence Life disciplinary process.

Residence Life staff members must address every violation of which they become aware. Do not expect or ask staff members to ignore policy violations. Be aware that the staff is dealing with an alleged violation of student responsibility, and this is not an indication of feelings about the student as an individual.

Student Conduct and Residence Life

Policies stated in the Residence Life Handbook are an extension of the University of Nebraska at Kearney’s Student Code of Conduct. On-campus residents are required to adhere to both the Student Code of Conduct and the Residence Life Handbook. Failure to comply with the policies stated in the Residence Life Handbook and/or Student Code of Conduct may be documented and referred to the Student Code of Conduct office.

Student Rights

Any time a student goes through the Student Code of Conduct process they have the following rights. The following information regarding student rights comes directly from the Student Code of Conduct:

Per Article IV, Section 2.5 of the UNK Student Code of Conduct, please be advised of the following rights and responsibilities:

- You will be advised of the source and nature of the misconduct complaint that has been filed.
- You are entitled to be accompanied by legal counsel or an advisor at your expense at any meeting or hearing relevant to the misconduct alleged in the complaint.
- You are under no obligation at any time to admit the misconduct alleged or to make any other statement at any meeting or hearing relevant to the misconduct alleged.
- Any statement that you may make can be used against you the student in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures.
The Student Conduct Process

Students who have potentially violated a Student Code of Conduct policy will be documented and referred to the Student Code of Conduct office. Once a documentation has been received it will be reviewed by a hearing officer who will then determine the next steps. If a violation has potentially occurred the hearing officer will contact the involved student(s) via email about setting up a hearing. Information and specifics about the code of conduct process will be given in the initial email communication.

At the start of a conduct hearing, a student is given the choice between an administrative disposition or a University Conduct Board hearing. An administrative disposition is an individual meeting between the conduct officer and the student(s) involved in the potential violation. The results of an administrative disposition are determined by the conduct officer and agreed to by the student(s) involved in the hearing. If a student does not agree with the outcome of the administrative hearing and/or fails to sign and return the administrative disposition form within three days the conduct case will be referred to the University Conduct Board for a hearing.

The University Conduct Board is made of up of Faculty, Staff and Students. The University Conduct board will hear the case and make a decision. The University Conduct Board’s decision may be appeal but only for the following reasons:

a. The information presented to and received by the Conduct Board was not sufficient to support its decision.
b. The sanctions imposed by the Conduct Board were excessive and/or not in keeping with the gravity of the misconduct.
c. The Conduct Board failed to follow the Disciplinary Procedures and that as a result of such failure the Student or RSO did not receive a fair and impartial hearing.

Should an appeal occur the case will be heard by the University Appeal Board for a final decision. The appeal board is made up of UNK faculty, staff and students who are separate from the University Conduct Board.

Detailed policies and procedures for conduct hearings can be found within the University Of Nebraska Student Code Of Conduct.

Depending on the seriousness of the violation a referral may be made to the Assistant Dean of Students.
A student may be removed from the residence halls or apartments upon being found responsible of one or more violations of University or Residence Life Rules and Regulations. Termination of a student’s right to tenancy is not considered a denial of the individual’s right to an education.

Confidentiality and Privacy

Student records are official and confidential documents protected by one of the nation’s strongest privacy protection laws, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Education records, as defined by FERPA, include all records that schools or education agencies maintain about students. Students have the right to review the contents of records, and challenge information they believe is not accurate. The review of records must be supervised by appropriate University personnel, and challenges must be directed through the appropriate administrative office. For a parent, legal guardian, or designated person to be given access to records, they must have legitimate need to know, and written permission from the student (this includes Apartment Contract information, change of contract information, change of meal plan information, financial information, and conduct information). For more information on the law and procedures, contact the Dean of Student Affairs at 865-8528.
