2. All candidates running for the office of Senator in the Student Senate must complete an application and have all required fields filled in and submitted no later than February 12th at 5:00 p.m. Central Standard Time. Please note that if you are running for the Student Senate, hereinafter referred to as the Senate, you will be running for the open seat that is associated with your college major.

3. Candidates are required to provide a detailed list of all campaign agents on the day applications are submitted February 12th, 2016. All President, Vice President, and Senate candidates will be held responsible for any of their agent’s actions.

4. This list must be submitted to the Election Commissioner or the Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union. The list may be updated but still needs the approval of either the Election Commissioner or the Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union. Please be aware that all agent lists can be updated at any time during the campaign.

5. Candidates may be disqualified in the event that one of the campaign agents violates any existing election and campaign regulation.

6. Violations made by campaign agents will be subjected to disciplinary action as described in the University of Nebraska – Kearney 2016 Election Guidelines Act.

7. Members of the student press may not run for Student Government. Those wishing to run for student government or serve as an agent for a candidate must first relinquish their position as a student press member.

8. Candidates may run on both the Presidential and Senatorial tickets, however they can only run under the rules of the presidential position while keeping their name on both ballots.

9. All Student Body President/Regent and Student Body Vice President Applicant(s) must attend a mandatory Student Government Informational Session on either January 26 or 27, 2016.

   a. If a Student Body President/Regent or Student Body Vice President Applicant(s) is unable to attend the Informational Sessions he/she must make an appointment with the Election Commissioner to discuss the election process and rules prior to the application deadline February 12, 2016.

   b. Student Body President/Regent or Student Body Vice President Applicant(s) must also make an appointment with the current Student Body President/Regent prior to the application deadline February 12, 2016.

10. All Senator Applicant(s) must attend a mandatory Student Government Informational Session on either January 26 or 27, 2016.

   a. If a Senator Applicant(s) is unable to attend the Informational Sessions he/she must make an appointment with the Election Commissioner to discuss the election process and rules prior to the application deadline February 12, 2016.
SECTION TWO: Creation and Dispersing of Campaign Materials on Campus

1. Only candidates and registered agents will be allowed to independently create and distribute any campaign materials.

2. All campaign materials must be approved and signed by either Election Commissioner or Student Government Advisor at the Nebraskan Student Union prior to the distributing of campaign materials. Any material found that is not approved by the people mentioned above will result in the taking down of material and a written warning by the Election Commissioner.

3. Candidates wishing to post campaign materials in the residence halls must take all signed materials to the Office of Residential Life located in Conrad Hall for the dispersing of the materials to the residential halls. The Hall Director of each residence hall will post all campaign materials. Below is a table that shows how many pieces of campaign material that can be posted in each hall.

4. All candidates wishing to advertise in the academic halls must take their signed and approved campaign material to the Dean’s office of the respective colleges for signatures of approval. All candidates will be responsible of hanging their own material in the academic halls.
5. No candidate, agent, or staff may place flyers or write campaign ideas or slogans in classrooms. Examples include: writing on chalkboards, giving flyers to constituents in class, or posting any flyers or posters in the classroom.

6. Candidates and agents may post flyers on university resident’s doors, however, written permission must be granted to the candidates by all residents living in that residential space.

7. All candidates may place a nine (9) square foot banner in the Atrium of the Nebraskan Student Union only if it is approved and permission is granted by the Election Commissioner or Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union.

8. Candidates may utilize lawn advertisements but must receive written permission by all occupants living at that place of residence. The advertisement cannot exceed sixteen (16) square feet.

9. Candidates may not put campaign ideas or slogans on university owned sidewalks or road surfaces.

10. If a candidate or a candidate agent is caught taking down campaign material from another camp, the candidates name will be taken off of the ballot.

11. Campaigning may begin after the application is turned in and a list of all of the candidate’s staff is turned into either the Election Commissioner or the Student Government Advisor at the Nebraskan Student Union.

SECTION THREE: Campaign Guidelines

1. Candidates, campaign agents, or others cannot for any reason place a vote for another student even if the student gives their consent. A violation of this rule will result in the loss of his or her vote.

2. Election Day campaigning by candidates or agents must be contained to a fifty (50) feet radius of Cope Memorial Fountain with no campaigning to take place in residential, academic, or campus buildings, amphitheater, and the intramural soccer fields.

3. All candidates can start campaigning at noon (12:00 p.m.) on February 17, 2015. Before campaigning, candidates must have all necessary forms filled and turned into the Election Commissioner or the Student Government Advisor at the Nebraskan Student Union.

4. All campaign materials may remain up throughout the election but must be removed twenty-four (24) hours after the closing of polling booths on the final day of election.
except those materials within fifty (50) feet of a polling booth, which must be removed by 11:59 p.m. on March 1, 2016.

SECTION FOUR: Online Social Groups

1. All groups and events designed for the use of campaigning must invite the Election Commissioner to the group to ensure that all rules and guidelines are being followed. Upon accepting the invitation to the group and events, the Election Commissioner must be named as an administrator to the groups and events.

2. Any candidate or candidate agents found in violation of these guidelines will have their name taken off of the ballot.

SECTION FIVE: Organization Support

1. An organization may support a candidate only if everyone in that organization is in favor of supporting that candidate(s). The organization must show evidence in writing to the election commissioner before any action is taken to help a candidate’s campaign. Organizations can support the candidate in only these ways.
   - Take out an advertisement in The Antelope.
   - Lawn support in the form of a poster must not exceed sixteen (16) squared feet. The poster needs to be ten feet away from all university property and must be approved by the Election Commissioner of Student Government and Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union. The poster also must be paid for with organization funds.
   - All candidate support must have in fine print at the bottom “Paid for by...” the name of the organization.
   - Any donation made by a student organization will count toward the total budget allowed to a candidate.

2. Community assemblies cannot make a formal announcement in the support of a candidate(s).

3. RHA and the NRHH may not make a formal announcement in the support of a candidate(s).

4. Resident Advisors cannot arrange and/or escort any group of students to polling booths and make a formal announcement in the support of a candidate(s).

5. Organizations that are considered student-ran must have a current and recently approved constitution. If there are any questions concerning this matter than you may consult the Election Commissioner or Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union.
SECTION SIX: Candidate Finance

1. Candidates for the Student Body President/Student Regent and Student Body Vice President may receive donations from any student organization or individual. No candidate for Student Body President/Student Regent and Student Body Vice President may spend more than $450 in campaign expenditures including purchased and non-purchased materials. Non-purchased items are those items that have been donated. An expenditure report must be turned in by 5:00 p.m. Central Standard Time to the Election Commissioner or Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union the Friday after the election.

2. Candidates for the Student Senate may receive donations and cannot exceed the spending limit of $100 including purchased and non-purchased items. A fair market value for a donation or discount must be determined in advance by the Election Commissioner or Student Government Advisor. (For example – a student candidate that is an employee must declare full price value for an employee discount or privilege.)

3. An expenditure report must be turned in to the Election Commissioner or Student Government Adviser at the Student Union by 5:00 p.m. Central Standard Time the Friday following the election.

4. Only UNK students and student groups (As define by the UNK Student Senate) can contribute to a candidate’s campaign funds. UNK students may contribute a total of $15 per student. Donations from registered student organizations cannot exceed $50.

5. Candidates shall not receive campaign donations, either monetary or material, totaling more than the spending limit for the position.

SECTION SEVEN: Debate

1. The debate will be between candidates running for President and Vice President.

2. The debate will be held the night before the first day of elections.

3. The questions will not be released to the candidates until the debate.

4. All questions will go through a screening process conducted at 4:00 p.m. Central Standard Time the day before the debate by the Election Commissioner.

5. Any other organization wanting to host a debate must have a current and up to date constitution and must have the approval of both the Election Commissioner and the Student Government Adviser at the Nebraskan Student Union.
6. There will be up to two preliminary debates allowed during the campaign so organizations wanting to host a debate will be decided on a “first come, first serve” basis and if they meet approval.

SECTION EIGHT: Election Day

1. The General Elections will be held on March 2 and 3, 2016. Voting will be done electronically.

2. In order to win the office of Student Body President and Student Body Vice President in the general election, the candidate(s) on the same ticket must receive fifty (50) percent plus one (1) of the general election vote. If this number is not obtained, a runoff election will take place.

3. Unless disqualified for some reason, the two (2) candidates whose names are on the ticket receiving the most votes for Student Body President/Student Regent and Student Body Vice President after any recount will be certified as elected provided the vote tally meets the special certification of election as described in Section Eight, Point Two.

4. All election week rules and guidelines outlined earlier must be followed, with special attention paid to the Section Four entitled “online social groups.”

5. Please report all discrepancies to the Election Commissioner.

6. The decision of having an election is up to the Election Commissioner. The location of booth will be in the Nebraskan Student Union, and the hours of the booth will be up to the Election Commissioner.

7. Poll workers will supervise all voting sites at all times. These workers will consist of a bi-partisan person that is listed on the Election Commissioner agent list.

8. Campaign agents that are working with polling sites may not wear any campaign material at the polling sites. Furthermore, all campaign material needs to be removed from the agents before they enter the polling site.

9. President/ Vice President candidates will only be allowed to vote in the election booths located in the Nebraskan Student Union and must cast their vote the first day of elections.

10. The Election Commissioner and Student Government Advisers may choose at their discretion to hire and utilize non-partisan poll workers for any Election Day duties such as election booth poll workers, counting ballots, etc.
SECTION NINE: Recounts

1. If a winner from either executive or senatorial campaigns has been determined by less than one (1) percent of the total votes cast for that position, the Election Commissioner shall conduct a recount of the votes.

2. During a recount a candidate must supply one agent and a Student Government Adviser must be present during the recount.

SECTION TEN: Runoff Elections

1. If an executive candidate does not receive the number of votes to secure a win, a runoff election will be conducted one week after the general election.

2. A runoff election will be held one week following the election. The candidates in the election will be the top two presidential candidates that received the most votes during the general election.

3. The candidates that are participating in the runoff election will be allowed an extra $100 in campaign expenditures. This money can either come from organization donations or individuals who donated to the campaign in the general election.

4. The winner of the runoff election must receive the fifty (50) percent plus one (1) percent of the votes and will be awarded the position of Student Body President/Student Regent and Student Body Vice President.

5. All expenditure reports from the runoff election must be turned in by the following Friday at 5:00 p.m. Central Standard Time.

SECTION ELEVEN: Punishments and Violations

1. Any and all violations to these guidelines, rules and regulations of the Election Commission, Bylaws, or Constitution of the Associated Student of the University of Nebraska – Kearney will result in the immediate disqualification and name of the candidate being taken off the ballot.

2. The Election Commissioner has the power to take anyone’s name off of the ballot, but only with the advice and consent by a unanimous decision of his/her Election Commission, and after consultation with the Student Government Advisor at the Nebraskan Student Union; as set upon in Section 12, Article 1 in the University of Nebraska – Kearney 2015 Election Guidelines Act.
