- Supported and coordinated development of
 - new online BA programs in Sociology and Pre-law
 - cross-college in-person programs in Data Science and Fermentation Science
 - five-university-consortium to continue offering instruction in ancient Greek
 - accelerated pathways for combined Bachelor's-to-Master's programs
- Replaced prerequisite courses in quantitative reasoning with corequisite pathways in mathematics and logic
- Oversaw significant curricular reforms across the College to accommodate
 - a new General Education model and the new Ohio Guarantee+ program
 - a substantial decline in the number of faculty following two voluntary separation and retirement initiatives in 2020 and 2022
- Oversaw college-level data collection and assessment for HLC accreditation
- Binghamton:
 - Established new Office of University-Wide Courses that supervises all courses carrying academic credit not overseen by academic departments
 - Oversaw curricular plans for 40 departments and interdisciplinary programs
 - Initiated and oversaw curriculum assessment for Middle States accreditation
 - As department chair: restarted our previously dormant MA and accelerated BS/MA programs that subsequently grew to 30+ self-funded students annually

Student success

- Ohio:
 - Developed a professional student advising unit housed within the College, replacing the previous faculty advising model and tripling the number of professional advisors
 - Organized the College implementation of the new Ohio Guarantee+ program (individualized graduation plans that incorporate career-building activities)
 - Worked with departments to find ways of reducing DFW rates
- Binghamton:
 - Explored alternatives to academic careers for humanities PhD students, as the sole PI of a $25,000 NEH Next Generation Humanities PhD Planning Grant
 - Co-led task forces to revise the calculus and pre-med programs
 - Oversaw the College's academic honesty process, making all final decisions
 - Served as the sole faculty representative on the Student of Concern committee and the Threat Assessment team

Financial management

- Ohio:
 - Oversaw the College's total budget of $82 million (2019)
 - Led the College through expenditure reductions of over $14 million (21% of unrestricted expenditures) while preserving the College's full breadth of departments, disciplines, and degree programs as well as its research mission
 - Implemented a Centralized Shared Services Center within the College that provides academic, financial, procurement, and compliance services to the College's 21 departments and programs as well as oversight of the College's 17 buildings

- Binghamton:
 - Oversaw the $13 million annual budget for graduate TA/GA stipends and tuition
 - Co-led a task force to revise the department chair compensation
 - As department chair: oversaw the $4 million annual budget
- NSF:
 - Oversaw the $24 million budget, jointly with the two other program directors

Fundraising

- Ohio:
 - Obtained financial commitments to the College of Arts & Sciences in
 - Fiscal Year 2020: $4.3 million
 - Fiscal Year 2021: $4.8 million (plus $8.3 million gifts in-kind)
 - Fiscal Year 2022: $2.7 million (plus $8.8 million gifts in-kind)
 - Established the College's new experiential learning fund

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging

- Ohio:
 - Started new initiative to embed inclusive excellence within the College's measures of academic quality and success
 - Convened a faculty committee to develop College strategies for improving inclusive hiring processes and for integrating inclusive excellence with the goals and processes of promotion and tenure
 - Introduced transparent contracts for all department chairs and directors
 - Instituted a new College workload policy that harmonizes and brings transparency to teaching loads, course releases, and payment of fiscal increments for extra service
 - Established a transparent system of college-wide travel support with equal access for faculty across all departments
 - Provided support for the Geology Department's URGE initiative
- Binghamton:
 - Spearheaded the College's new faculty mutual mentorship program
 - Chaired the Presidential Diversity Postdoctoral Fellowship Search Committee

Research and faculty development

- Ohio:
 - Coordinated financial support for faculty start-up funds and for the acquisition and replacement of large-scale research equipment
 - Converted royalty funds into a $4.7 million quasi-endowment to support faculty and graduate student research in perpetuity
 - Worked with departments on broadening the scope of recognized scholarship
 - Offered multi-year contracts to all instructional college faculty in Spring 2022
 - Integrated 64 Arts & Sciences faculty from Ohio University's five regional campuses into the departments on the Athens campus
 - Supported faculty and staff for the HERS Leadership Institute and MAC-ALDP
 - Worked with faculty on developing the College's new vision and strategic plan

- Binghamton:
 - Developed Harpur College's first annual teaching award (now in its 9th year)
 - Established international partnerships in support of faculty-initiated programs for student recruitment, faculty and student exchange, and scholarly activities
 - Led annual orientations for new faculty and for new department chairs
 - Organized proposal-writing workshops and provided strategic guidance for pursuing relevant funding opportunities to faculty and graduate students
 - Oversaw travel support, internal grants and awards, sabbaticals, other leaves
 - As department chair: oversaw 4 faculty personnel cases and successfully hired 4 tenure-track faculty, several adjuncts, and 2 staff members

Community engagement

- Ohio:
 - Rebuilt Ohio University's Central Region Humanities Center that engages with community organizations and provides experiential learning opportunities
 - Ensured survival of the College's student farm that addresses local food insecurity
 - Supported the College's stewardship of Dysart Woods (old growth forest)

Infrastructure management

- Ohio:
 - Co-led the university's strategic initiative Reimagine Space Utilization and the University's Footprint
 - Oversaw the completion of the College's 69,000 sqft New Chemistry Building and subsequent renovation of Clippinger Laboratories
 - Embedded within the College the previously independent Center for International Studies that offers 11 degree programs and instruction in 6 Asian and African languages
 - Increased opportunities for collaboration by relocating several departments

Other accomplishments

- Ohio:
 - Redesigned the College leadership structure, reducing the number of direct reports to the Dean from nine to four persons and hiring two new Associate Deans
 - Developed a new campus-level Arts & Sciences marketing sub-brand
 - Worked closely with Institutional Research to improve accuracy of internal data
 - Coordinated the College's responses and adjustments to COVID-19, including adapting curricula and teaching modalities, accommodating clinical placements and internships, adjusting student advising, as well as designing, adopting, and implementing policies to ensure research safety and recruiting
- Binghamton:
 - Led the task force to revise the Harpur College bylaws

Direct supervision

- Ohio: 3 Associate Deans, CFO, 21 department chairs and program directors
- Binghamton: Assistant Dean, Director of Harpur College Advising, Research Development Specialist, Administrative Assistant for the Associate Deans
