READY. SET. FIGHT!

The Lessons from an Entrepreneur with $50

Grant Stanley, an Omaha native, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the National University of Pingtung in Taiwan with a bachelor's degree in Economics. He graduated from college in 2 ½ years.

Through his business ownership experience Grant has developed a passion for building teams of innovative professionals. He believes that Nebraska business owners can benefit from his presentation, “Ready. Set. Fight!”, which shares his message that entrepreneurship doesn't always require large amounts of capital, or a high tolerance for risk, but rather it is a way of thinking and living.
