Workshop Description

In conjunction with the Office of Graduate Studies, Dr. Martonia Gaskill (Associate Professor and Director & Advisor, Instructional Technology Masters Program) and Amber Alexander (Online Program Coordinator and Lecturer) will host a workshop on ePortfolios as a powerful tool for students to document and demonstrate cutting edge skills. ePortfolios can elevate the standard resume to a live and descriptive portrait of students sophisticated abilities such as communication, writing and critical thinking skills, and their readiness for the competitive job market. This workshop will include hands on time.

Participate in this workshop to:

- ◆ Learn ePortfolio basics and why you should have one
- ◆ Learn about free online tools for ePortfolio development
- ◆ Get advice on what to include in your professional ePortfolio
- ◆ View samples of ePortfolios from several fields of study
- ◆ Hands on time to start your own ePortfolio
