COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Evolution of laws relating to fish and wildlife with a particular focus on major federal legislation, federal versus state jurisdiction, fishing and hunting rights, and other topics.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- 1) Describe the evolution of the Public Trust Doctrine in the United States.
- 2) Critically evaluate several important wildlife-related federal policies, including, but not limited to the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, the Bald and Golden Eagle Protection Act, the National Environmental Protection Act, the Lacey Act, and the Endangered Species Act.
- 3) Identify jurisdiction (state, federal, tribal) in wildlife and fisheries issues.

PREREQUISITES:

There are no formal prerequisites for this course but this course is only open to those who are enrolled at UNK as graduate students.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHOD:

This course is presented entirely online; therefore, good time management and self-study skills are critical to your success! Extra effort is often required in an online course compared to the classroom-based version because most of the work rests on your shoulders. You will be required to read or view the assigned materials (including the short lecture videos) each week. Most weeks include at least one discussion. Weekly course updates and reminders will be provided via the "Announcements" feature in Canvas. Communication with the instructor can be by phone, e-mail, or in person. You are encouraged to use all three as frequently as needed.

You will be tested on your ability to critically evaluate, reflect on, integrate, and apply course information through written assignments and open-book "exams." You are welcomed to work with or share thoughts about your assignments and exams with your classmates, but you will be required to write and submit your own original material.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Students are required to complete all textbook or other assigned readings, view all presentations, and contribute to all discussions as scheduled. Assignments and exams must be turned in by the assigned due dates. Students should make the effort to log into the class throughout the week rather than just one or two days, even if it's just a "quick check" of the discussions or announcements.

MISSED ASSIGNMENTS/QUIZZES/EXAMS AND MAKE-UP POLICY:

Any and all discussion, assignments, and exams in this class MUST be submitted by the designated deadline (see course calendar below) unless you and I have discussed otherwise. If you do not have an approved absence, you will receive a zero on that assignment. Please note that computer emergencies (e.g., hard drive crashed, etc.) are NOT considered an excuse. You should always have an alternative means of accessing or submitting electronic information and course work. If you have an emergency (e.g., illness, death in the family, etc.), please contact me no later than 36 hours after the missed deadline to make new arrangements.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

All required readings will be provided on Canvas. There is no single textbook to purchase as I will be drawing from many textbooks, journal articles, and popular readings to illustrate the concepts of this course. If you are interested in purchasing any of the textbooks referenced in class for the future, please let me know and I can provide more information.

For research resources, please be sure to use your local library as well as online search engines (e.g., Google Scholar) as you will likely need to access older articles that may or may not be available online.

GRADING POLICY: Below is a roughly estimated breakdown of the assignments and points for this course. Please note that these points may be subject to change but that those changes will be communicated with you in a timely fashion. Grades will be entered in Canvas so you should be aware of where you stand throughout the semester.

Grade Item	Points
First Unit Exam	100
Final Exam	100
Discussions	100 – 150
Various Assignments	100 – 150
Final Review Paper	150
TOTAL	550 – 650

Grades in this class will be assigned according to the standard scoring system described below. Only by attaining these percentages can you be assured of receiving a desired grade.

A+	97 – 100%	A	94 – 96 %	A-	90 – 93%
B+	87 – 89%	B	84 – 86%	B-	80 – 83%
C+	77 – 79%	C	74 – 76%	C-	70 – 73%
D+	67 – 69 %	D	60 – 64%	D-	60 – 63%
		F	< 60%

Please note: If your final grade is within 0.5% of the next highest grade, your grade will be rounded up (e.g., an 89.50% will be considered an "A-"). This is the definitive cutoff for rounding grades. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

It is also plagiarism when either an author's ideas or organization of concepts are used without giving a citation. We expect you to use references for assignments given in this course and we expect you to cite your sources. Students caught plagiarizing will receive a failing grade for the assignment and will face additional punishments up to expulsion as outlined by University policy. I invite you to visit the online resource <http://www.plagiarism.org/> to make sure you understand what plagiarism is and how to avoid it.
