COURSE MATERIALS
- Respondus Lockdown Browser REQUIRED/MANDATORY for all quizzes! Please use the following link to download the Respondus Lockdown Browser: https://download.respondus.com/lockdown/download.php?id=477439341%20
  More information is on Canvas. This will NOT work on a Chromebook or Linux computer.
- E-mail: All students MUST use their UNK email account so that I can reach them. All emails to Dr. Hobbs should be sent from your email account and not through Canvas.
- Computer/laptop with Adobe Acrobat and Microsoft Word

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Discussion-based course on the history of endocrinology and how the study of hormones has changed since their discovery over 100 years ago.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
1. Students will be able describe how the study of hormones has changed over the last 100+ years.
2. Students will describe the source, target, and action of the major human hormones.
3. Students will be able to describe the different techniques and tools used to study endocrinology.
4. Students will be able to evaluate scientific research papers.

GRADE ASSIGNMENT: Grades will be assigned using the standard grading scale for the Department of Biology, as follows: A (93-100%), A- (90-92%), B+ (88-89%), B (83-87%), B- (80-82%), C+ (78-79%), C (73-77%), C- (70-72%), D+ (68-69%), D (63-67%), D- (60-62%), and F (below 60%). FYI, I do not round up grades. Therefore, if you have an 82.6%, you have earned a letter grade of a B-, not a B. Also, 1% = 6.6 points not 1 point. Grade assignments are final unless there is a calculation error.

LECTURE QUIZZES
During the first week of each module, you will be given a quiz worth 10 points. Quizzes will make up 70 points of your grade. The purpose of these quizzes is to make sure that you are keeping up with the readings for each discussion.
GROUP DISCUSSIONS: During the second week of each module, students will be presented with weekly discussion topics based on the readings from “Aroused” as well as the associated supplemental readings. Students will submit their posts onto the appropriate discussion board on Canvas. Discussion boards will be unlocked on Mondays at 12:01 AM Central Time and locked on Sundays at 11:59 PM Central Time.

Please see the separate rubric (posted on Canvas) for a complete breakdown of how I will be grading the discussion boards. Briefly, each discussion board is worth 10 points. Students will be scored on three criteria: 1) evidence of critical thinking (maximum of 4 pts), 2) minimum posting requirements (maximum of 3 points), and 3) responses to classmates and Dr. Hobbs (maximum of 3 points). Doing the minimum will only provide you with the opportunity to be scored and possibly earn 1 of the possible 10 points. These discussions will be worth 10 points each, for a total of 70 points.

I do not expect you to spend 5 hours per week in each of these Discussion Boards. I expect, given the criteria listed in the rubric, for you to post most days Monday-Friday. I will not be keeping track of time spent on the Discussion Board, as it takes time to read and respond to the posts. You should be wanting to post every day. You do not need a peer-reviewed reference for every post, but if you are stating an opinion, you should provide support for it with data/evidence from a peer-reviewed source (not Wikipedia!). Remember, Discussion Boards are for just that, DISCUSSION! Unless you are the first person answering the question(s) posted, you should not be starting a new thread. You should be replying to someone else. I am not concerned that everyone answers the posted question. The question or questions serve as a prompt for us to begin discussion. I want discussion, not simply posting for points.

What should this look like? (Example taken from Dr. Carlson’s Bioethics of HeLa Cells)

Question: Do birds have fur?

Dr. Hobbs: Birds do not have fur, they have feathers. These feathers are used in mating dances and rituals. Many times, it is the male of the species that has the more ornamental feathers. This helps in attracting a mate (Leghorn 2016)

Reply from student 1: Dr. Hobbs, I disagree with you. Some birds do have fur. If we look at the ancient FleeceFlyer, it had a thick covering of purple fur, not feathers. It was a flying bird also. (Jurassic 2015)

Reply to student 1 from student 2: Do you have a picture of this? I would like to know how they determined this could fly? Was it large? This is amazing!

Yes, I will be in Discussion Board M-F, this is the reason I set it up. I love to discuss with you! I will play “devil’s advocate”. I will ask questions, etc. I am also the only person who gets credit for saying “Awesome! I agree!” or any phrases like this.

If you have any questions on the score you earned for the week, please simply email me. Also, please email any questions!

As this is an online format, tone and expression may not be readily discerned from your posts. Please avoid the use of online or text message abbreviations or symbols. Your posts should show respect for the views and experiences of your other classmates. I will remove any offensive posts from the board and these posts will not be considered for grading purposes.

INDIVIDUAL PRESENTATION AND FINAL PAPER: During the first week of class, students will select a hormone from a list provided by Dr. Hobbs. This hormone will be the topic of their individual presentation and final paper. Students will 1) discuss how the hormone was discovered, 2) discuss the source, target, and action of the hormone, and 3) design a brief experiment examining the effects of the hormone. You must support points 2 and 3 above using peer-reviewed primary research articles (review articles are acceptable, but make sure they are not your only source). Be creative with your experiment! Make sure to discuss the organisms or cells you use and justify why they are important for your experiment. Also be sure to include basic methodology and expected results for your experiment. This paper is due by May 17, 11:55pm CT.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: UNK’s policy is the maintenance of academic honesty and integrity is a vital concern of the University community. This policy is stated in the Graduate Catalog or at http://catalog.unk.edu/graduate/academics/academic-regulations/expectations-in-the-classroom/academic-integrity-policy/. Any student found in violation of this policy will be subjected to both academic and disciplinary sanctions. Violation of this policy includes Plagiarism, Cheating, Fabrication and Falsification, and Other Acts of Academic Dishonesty.

You are encouraged to make use of the online tools and resources provided at www.plagiarism.org/ to help you identify the various types of plagiarism, learn how to effectively paraphrase, as well as adequately cite your sources.

Attendance Policy
Your instructor may have indicated on their syllabus an attendance policy specific to their class. If so, that is the policy with which you must comply. If no other policy is stated, the University-wide attendance policy will apply. You can find the Student Attendance Policy Statement online.
Academic Honesty Policy
Academic honesty is essential to the existence and integrity of an institution of higher education. The responsibility for maintaining that integrity is shared by all members of the academic community. To further serve this end, the University of Nebraska at Kearney has a policy relating to academic integrity. To ensure all students understand the expectations, UNK has adopted an Academic Integrity Policy.

Students with Disabilities
It is the policy of the University of Nebraska at Kearney to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to students with documented disabilities. To receive accommodation services for a disability, students must be registered with the UNK Disabilities Services for Students (DSS) office, 175 Memorial Student Affairs Building, 308-865-8214 or by email unkdso@unk.edu

UNK Statement of Diversity & Inclusion
UNK stands in solidarity and unity with our students of color, our Latinx and international students, our LGBTQIA+ students and students from other marginalized groups in opposition to racism and prejudice in any form, wherever it may exist. It is the job of institutions of higher education, indeed their duty, to provide a haven for the safe and meaningful exchange of ideas and to support peaceful disagreement and discussion. In our classes, we strive to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication and mutual respect. UNK does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, disability or political affiliation. Respect for the diversity of our backgrounds and varied life experiences is essential to learning from our similarities as well as our differences. The following link provides resources and other information regarding D&I: https://www.unk.edu/about/equity-access-diversity.php

Students Who are Pregnant
It is the policy of the University of Nebraska at Kearney to provide flexible and individualized reasonable accommodation to students who are pregnant. To receive accommodation services due to pregnancy, students must contact the Student Health office at 308.865.8218. The following links provide information for students and faculty regarding pregnancy rights. https://thepregnantscholar.org/title-ix-basics/

Reporting Student Sexual Harassment, Sexual Violence or Sexual Assault
Reporting allegations of rape, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, sexual harassment, and stalking enables the University to promptly provide support to the impacted student(s), and to take appropriate action to prevent a recurrence of such sexual misconduct and protect the campus community. Confidentiality will be respected to the greatest degree possible. Any student who believes she or he may be the victim of sexual misconduct is encouraged to report to one or more of the following resources:

- Local Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault Advocacy Agency 308-237-2599
- Campus Police (or Security) 308-865-8911
- Title IX Coordinator 308-865-8655

Retaliation against the student making the report, whether by students or University employees, will not be tolerated.

Problems/Questions
If you have questions then ask or come and see me or contact me via e-mail or phone. If you are having problems with the course come and see me before it is too late (not the week before your position paper is due or when the course is over).
