Dr. John Martin Petzet is Assistant Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at the University of Nebraska-Kearney. He conducts the Choraleers, Collegium, Men’s and Women’s Choruses, and teaches Secondary Choral Methods and Choral Conducting. He is a native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he taught middle school and high school for 5 years. Furthermore, he has conducted honor choirs across Louisiana and in Colorado, was invited to teach at the West Texas Choral Workshop, and to teach, present, and conduct at La Universidad Autónoma De Ciudad Juárez and to work with the Anáima Ensamble Vocal in Juárez, Mexico. Dr. Petzet has also written two compact disc reviews for the Choral Journal and has presented interest sessions in Alabama, Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, and Utah. He also sang, toured, and recorded with the Kansas City Chorale under the direction of Charles Bruffy during the 2003-2004 season. While performing with the Chorale, he sang on the Chandos recording of Alexandre Grechaninov’s Passion Week, which won a Grammy for Best Engineered Classical Album. He resides in Kearney, Nebraska with his lovely wife Jennifer and his 3 children: Zachary, Andrew, and Catherine.
