CLARINET & FLUTE DAY

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2026

9:00 AM – 3:00 PM (CST)

UNK FINE ARTS BUILDING

Dr. David Nabb: Clarinet | Franziska Brech, Flute

The UNK Clarinet & Flute Day has been an annual event since 2017, and it is back for 2026!

This workshop is FREE and open to middle and high school clarinet and flute players and their teachers. Clarinet instruction will be provided by UNK Professor of Music, Dr. David Nabb. Flute instruction will be led by UNK Flute Professor, Franziska Brech.

Clarinet players will refresh their fundamentals and work on clarinet choir music with Dr. Nabb. Flute players will have the chance to explore various playing techniques, visit the Petting Zoo of Flutes, and play chamber and flute choir music.

The workshop will culminate with all participants performing in a recital at 2:00pm.

During the event, a complimentary pizza lunch will be provided by UNK Music.

To register by February 17, simply scan the QR Code or visit:
