KEARNEY LAW OPPORTUNITIES PROGRAM (KLOP)

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Kearney Law Opportunities Program (KLOP) is a partnership between the University of Nebraska at Kearney and the University of Nebraska College of Law designed to recruit students from rural Nebraska and prepare them to eventually return and practice law in rural Nebraska upon graduation from law school.

KLOP BENEFITS

- Students selected for KLOP will receive a full tuition scholarship to UNK for up to 120 credit hours.
- Each KLOP student receives one-on-one mentorship from the Pre-Law/KLOP faculty adviser throughout their time at UNK.
- KLOP students receive numerous career and professional development opportunities, including: preferred access to law-related internships; frequent visits to the UNL College of Law; regular interactions with attorneys, judges and current law students; and extensive undergraduate research opportunities.
- During sophomore/junior year, KLOP students spend two weeks in Europe as part of a class on international human rights law.
- After receiving a bachelor's degree at UNK, this program guarantees a student's acceptance into Nebraska College of Law at UNL, provided minimum requirements are met (GPA, LSAT score).
