January Class

We kicked off the new year with insightful sessions: Digital Well-Being with Dr. Chance Bell, Assistant Vice Chancellor for International Affairs; Artificial Intelligence with David Arredondo, Collections Services Librarian at Calvin T. Ryan Library; and CliftonStrengths with Renae Zimmer, Director of Student Engagement and Leadership.

Mark Your Calendars

Join College of Business and Technology Dean Dr. Brooke Envick to discuss her new book, True Ascension: Unlocking Greatness through Faith, Fortitude, and Foresight.

March 17, 9 – 10:30 a.m.
West Center 205N

Books available for purchase at the event or on Amazon.

Thank you, Lopers!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the annual Loper Pantry Food Drive.

Your generosity helped us collect 1,521 items for the Loper Pantry – that's nearly 160 additional items than last year!

Congratulations to Warner Hall for earning the title of LUNK Food Drive Champions with more than 600 items being donated.

LUNK Class #18, 2024–2025

Fun Fact: I'm very active with Kearney Community Theatre and have done an entire summer production wearing stilts!

Favorite part of LUNK: The cross-campus communication! I really enjoyed getting to see all the different departments interacting.
