

Proof of Eligible Non-Citizen/Permanent Resident Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (formerly INS)

Your 2022–23 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) requires additional information in order to verify that you are either a permanent resident of the United States, or an eligible non-citizen of the United States. You must provide proof of your status either by:

(1) Presenting the original document in person to a staff member in the Office of Financial Aid to photocopy, or

(2) Mailing, emailing, or submitting a clear photocopy of your original document via Financial Aid's 'Document Upload' tool on MyBLUE.

The photocopy should include your NU-ID and the following signed and dated statement clearly written on the photocopy: I certify that all of the information provided on this document is accurate and complete.

The following are examples of acceptable documentation:

- Permanent Resident Card (I-551) – Copy both sides of the document
- Conditional Permanent Resident Card (I-551C) – Copy both sides of the document
- Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) showing any one of the following designations:
 - “Refugee”
 - “Asylum Granted”
 - “Parolee” (I-94 confirms that you were paroled for a minimum of one year and status has not expired)
 - “Cuban-Haitian Entrant.”
 - T-Visa holder (T-1, T-2, T-3, etc.)
 - Valid certification or eligibility letter from the Department of Health and Human Services showing a designation of “Victim of human trafficking.”

NOTE: You are not eligible for financial aid if you are in the United States under one of the following designations:

- An F1 or F2 student visa,
- A J1 or J2 exchange visitor visa, or
- A G series visa (pertaining to international organizations)
- Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)
