Timeline Example: A Chair contacts her College Ed Policy Committee and learns their next (and final) voting meeting takes place March 23. Accordingly, she submits her CIM proposal(s) by roughly March 9. This allows 1 week for the Registrar's Office to review/approve and another 1 week for the Ed Policy Committee to draft their agenda before their March 23 voting meeting. The Dean would ideally review/approve the request between March 23 and the March 30 deadline (see calendar). On March 30, the Registrar's Office drafts the agenda for the AAC to discuss on April 8 and vote on April 16. Faculty Senate would give their approval April 28. Any approved changes would go into effect with the 26-27 catalog.
