Dean's List

During the spring and fall semesters, the Deans' List is established to honor undergraduate students for their academic achievements. Students who have completed at least 12 credit hours during the semester with a 3.5 or better semester GPA are eligible. Courses taken on a credit/no credit basis are not included among the necessary 12 credit hours. Students on the Deans' List may obtain their certificate of recognition from their respective Dean's office after the first month of the following semester.

FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.
