COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND TECHNOLOGY (CBT) LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITY

Housing Scholarship available! Interested in a career in business or technology? Choose this LLC to receive support and guidance during your college experience.

The University has approved a select number of partial housing scholarships for qualified students in the CBT LLC. Scholarships are valued at nearly half your housing costs.

• CBT Living Learning Community: A limited number of students will be given the opportunity to participate in this unique living learning experience in Centennial Towers West (CTW) at UNK.

• Mentoring: Students will have an experienced CBT upperclassman to keep them connected to events and student services. Students will participate in meetings with their mentoring group.

• Academic and Professional Development: The curriculum is designed to provide students with the tools and skills to succeed in college as well as professional development experiences.

Why should you consider a living learning community consisting of students?

The Benefits:

• Ready-made study group with shared interests who take similar classes.

• Mentor involved in your success and supporting your transition to college.

• LLC members nationwide earn higher GPA’s and have a better chance of success.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Does this opportunity come with scholarship money?
Yes! The University has approved a select number of partial housing scholarships for qualified students in the CBT LLC. Scholarships are valued at nearly half your housing costs.

Do I have to live on campus?
Yes, you must live on campus in the assigned residence hall.

What if I want to room with a friend who won’t be in this learning community?
In most cases, to participate in the CBT Living Learning Community, you will need to be roommates with another member of the LLC. While we think this is best, we will consider exceptions on a case-by-case basis.

What if I decide I don’t want to continue in the College of Business and Technology and change my major?
We will work with you to make the change. However, your room assignment is for the whole year and we will not ask you to change rooms.

What about the spring?
You will continue with the mentoring program and the LLC curriculum throughout the spring semester.

HOW CAN I APPLY FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY?
