Introduction to Residence Life

Mission Statement

The Office of Residence Life supports UNK's mission by connecting students on campus to strong communities where they have the support to learn and develop into leaders.

"Our vision is to be the best housing option in town for our students."

The Six Pillars of our success are developed from our passions, strengths, economic engine and core values which include the following:

- a. Create spaces where students feel a sense of belonging!
- b. Adapt to changing student needs.
- c. Develop opportunities for students to connect.
- d. Support students in their goals to enhance their college experience.
- e. Allow students opportunities to grow into leaders.
- f. Establish experiences to enhance student development.
- g. Establish partnerships with collaborative offices to ensure student safety.

Residence Life works with the Division of Student Affairs to achieve its mission which is as follows. Student Affairs exists to provide programs and services that support the successful retention and graduation of students. Our Educational Priority is: As a result of the student experience at UNK, students will be bold difference makers in their communities. Student Affairs takes a curricular approach to achieving holistic development with three Learning Goals:

Personal Growth

Students will have an understanding of their strengths and growth opportunities. They will be able to learn strategies to overcome challenges. They will adopt a growth mindset toward adversity that will encourage and deepen their sense of self. They will understand how their actions affect others and will make choices that strengthen relationships and community.

Professional Growth

Students will be able to strategically communicate on a variety of platforms that contribute in a positive way toward community. They will be able to see conflict as an opportunity for growth that leads to learning. Students will become life-long learners by identifying learning strategies that work for them and anticipating applications to future challenges. They will be able to adapt to various professional environments and find ways to thrive personally and contribute meaningfully to those cultures.

Community Engagement

Students will be able to build healthy relationships. They will better understand cultural competence that allows them to communicate effectively across differences. They will understand the importance of diversity and inclusion and will use strategies to bring about more equitable, just, and inclusive communities. They will recognize leadership as a process rather than a position and be able to provide leadership in various ways to better their local, national, and international communities.

In order to achieve student success, Student Affairs strives to build an environment and community where staff feel that they belong and that fosters partnerships between staff and academic, administrative and community stakeholders.

The primary contact for students that live in the residence halls is their Resident Assistant or RA. Each resident has an RA that lives in their community. The RA is responsible for providing educational strategies to assist students in meeting our learning goals, maintaining a safe community, and is available to assist residents through their experience at UNK. RAs report to a professional staff member that lives in the community and is also available to assist residents during their time with us. If residents need any assistance, they should not hesitate to seek out any member of the Residence Life team or stop by the main office, which is located in Warner Hall Suite 2200.

LOPERS Community Standards for Living On Campus

Our office is committed to creating an environment where students have an enjoyable living environment. To assist with achieving that goal, we have adapted community standards for students living with us on campus. Please familiarize yourself with the expectations we have set forth to create a comfortable atmosphere for you and your peers which are outlined below:

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR NEIGHBORS. Safety is something that helps everyone feel comfortable in the hall. Keep exterior doors locked and closed, remain in possession of your keys and NUID, don't allow strangers to follow you into the building, and be mindful of the guest policy to avoid burdening neighbors with unknown people in their space. Be mindful that you are taking steps to help yourself and your peers feel safe in their home away from home.

OBSERVE BOUNDARIES FOR YOURSELF AND FOR OTHERS.

Remember that we are all here to get an education. Your roommate, suitemates, and neighbors need to have a quiet space to sleep and should be able to pursue an education without difficulty. Make sure to communicate your boundaries and listen to others expressing their boundaries when you run into disputes.

PICK UP AFTER YOURSELF.

Our community includes custodians that work hard to maintain a clean environment for us all. They need your help to keep trash out of the common areas. Respect the building and their time by cleaning up after yourself, disposing of trash in receptacles outside of the building, removing your laundry from machines right away, and being kind to the facilities you live-in. Submit work orders right away if there is something in your room that has broken so they can address it before it becomes a bigger concern.

ENCOURAGE EACH OTHER.

Your fellow Lopers need your encouragement to get involved and succeed at UNK. The greatest reward of living on campus is the opportunity to be surrounded by all the resources available to you here at UNK. Living in a community creates experiences to learn together. Study together, share your successes, explore innovative ideas, and support each other through challenging times.

RESPECT YOUR FELLOW LOPERS. This means fostering a respectful environment. There is no tolerance for bullying, harassment, or discrimination. Respect the building and the university by following the policies and procedures set in place for your safety and convenience. We are in this together!

SEE YOUR POTENTIAL. Having confidence in yourself that you can achieve your career goals is extremely important in your ability to succeed in college. We see your potential! That is why we are here to encourage and support you! Go LOPERS and reach out if you need support.

For your safety, we advise that you familiarize yourself with the fire evacuation routes in your hall and follow posted procedures for evacuation in the event of a fire alarm. Please calmly make the quickest and safest exit out of the building. The following is a list of gathering points in case of fire.

- Call 911 if and when it is safe to do so.
- Provide 911 with as much specific information as possible: location, description, time, etc.
- Consider: Run. Hide. Fight.
- Run: If it is safe to do so for staff and students, run out of the building and go far away until you are in a safe location.
- Hide: If running is not a safe option, hide in as safe a place as possible
- Fight: As a last resort, adults in immediate danger should consider using force and items in their environment: fire extinguishers and chairs.
- Remember: Law enforcement's top priority is to stop the bad guy! They will look for the person(s) with a gun.

Living in Community & Hall Procedures

Residence Hall Fees

Each resident is responsible for keeping the community clean, safe, and comfortable for all residents to enjoy. If a resident sees a problem with cleanliness, door propping, something occurring in the building, and noise issues the first step is to talk to the resident(s) creating the concern (if possible). If the problem persists after you've worked to address the concern, the resident assistant or hall staff member should be contacted. If a hall staff member cannot be found, we encourage residents to reach out to us via email or phone to notify us of the issue.

Fees

At the beginning of each term (Fall and Spring), residents will be assessed $65.00 to their student account. This fee will be divided as follows:

- Hall social fee ($5)
- Residence Hall Association ($5)
- METS payment ($10)
- Laundry Fee ($60)

METS

"Managing the Environment Through Students" (METS) is a program designed to promote responsibility among students for their residence hall community. Damages in public areas where individual accountability cannot be determined are assessed equally to students within a particular living area and withdrawn from the METS account. Money remaining in the account at the end of the academic year is used for hall specific improvements.

Check-In

Check-in occurs when the assigned room key(s) is issued to a resident. The following is an explanation of a resident's responsibilities when checking into a new room:

- Pick up key(s) from residence hall staff
- Review the Room Condition Report (RCR) on Roompack and acknowledge or note the condition of items in the room. Failure to do so 72 hours after checking in will result in automatic acceptance of the room condition and the university items within the room.

Check-Out

Residents must follow the proper check-out procedures when changing rooms or vacating the premises such as, withdrawing or transferring from the University, moving off-campus, etc. Failure to check out in-person, with a residence life staff member, will result in a minimum of a $50 improper check-out fee. At the time of check-out, if keys are not returned an appropriate fee will be assessed. Students must be checked out 24 hours after their last final. Please follow the guidelines below to ensure proper check-out:

- Make arrangements to check out 24 hours in advance with a staff member.
- Rooms should be cleaned prior to the check-out appointment and be in the same condition as received at Check-In.
- Return keys to a staff member or labeled return box on campus. We do not accept keys returned via mail.
- Verify the room condition in Roompack upon check out. Upon checking out a staff member will assess the condition of the room. Any damages that have occurred will be recorded on the room inventory. Residents are responsible for room damages. Residents are not charged for damages that were initially recorded during check-in.

- Pay for damages, if any. Charges will be placed on your student account in MyBLUE.
- Any appeal to a charge must be made in writing and within 14 days of notification of charges.

Keys and Lock Outs

Residents are responsible for carrying their room keys at all times. If a resident finds themselves locked out of their room, they first should contact their residence hall front desk for assistance. If the desk is closed, they can contact the Residence Life front office at (308) 865-8519 during office hours or the Resident Assistant on Duty after 5:00 p.m. or on holidays. The following points will apply:

- All residents will be required to show the assisting residence hall staff member a picture ID either before or immediately after being let in the room to ensure the safety and security of all residents.
- Residents will be required to produce their key to the assisting residence hall staff member. If the key cannot be produced, the staff member will notify hall staff. The next business day, the hall staff will initiate a lock change at the resident's expense.
- If a resident has 3 lockouts in one calendar year, the Office of Residence Life will begin charging $25 per lockout to their Student Account on the fourth lockout and each subsequent lockout.

If a resident has misplaced their key, they should follow these steps:

- Check with hall staff to see if the key(s) has been turned in.
- If not found, the hall staff will start the replacement process. The lock will be re-cored and re-keyed and the resident will be assessed the replacement costs listed below.

Replacement Key Costs

Key	Cost	Applies To

Village Flats 1 bedroom	$180	Apartment exterior door lock plus mailbox lock plus 2 keys

Laundry Rooms

All our washers are High Efficiency (HE) machines. Therefore, we require HE detergent to be used in the machines. A $60 laundry fee is assessed to each resident every semester. Non-residents are not permitted to use laundry facilities. The University is not responsible for damaged or stolen laundry. Clothing left in laundry rooms for an extended period of time may be placed in a designated lost & found and will be donated or disposed of if not claimed within 15 calendar days.

Mail Service

Mail is delivered Monday through Friday except during Holidays, to the hall mailroom. Residents are assigned a mailbox according to their room number with the exception of Armstrong and Martin Halls. These residents can check for and pick up mail at the Antelope Desk.

Packages

When a resident receives a package, they will receive an email to their UNK email address &/or text to the phone number in the MyBLUE system. Residents will be able to retrieve their packages through a package locker located in the Student Union. Students will scan the barcode they receive to open a locker and take out their packages. Locker access is available from 7:00 a.m.– 11:00 p.m. daily as long as the NSU is open.

Oversized packages are received at the Mantor/Randall front desk and are available for pick up during established hours

Cleanliness

Residents are asked for their cooperation in maintaining a high standard of cleanliness. Residence Life is not responsible for providing cleaning supplies. Mops, buckets, brooms and vacuums are available in each hall. Residents are responsible for emptying their own trash in the dumpsters provided outside the building.

Maintenance Work Requests

We appreciate the residents' participation in maintaining the high quality of our residence halls. If you notice a maintenance issue or have a concern with residence life facilities, please fill out a maintenance work request online at (www.unk.edu/offices/facilities). If you are unsure about how to file a maintenance request, please consult with a hall staff member to ensure it is filed.

Renter's Insurance

The Office of Residence Life is not liable for loss or damage to personal property in resident rooms or public areas. It is always the responsibility of all residents to keep their rooms locked. Residents may be covered by their family's personal property insurance and are encouraged to carry a private insurance policy to cover their property against loss.

Safety and Security in the Residence Halls

Residents are responsible for locking their room. Your Residence Hall room should be locked at all times. Doors leading to living areas are locked twenty-four (24) hours a day. We implore each resident to ensure the hall doors are securely locked when entering and leaving the facility. It is important that residents are security conscious in the halls, on the campus, and in the community. Students should be familiar with safety precautions. Residents should be aware of their actions and the potential danger that could be inflicted on other people. Residents found propping doors or tampering with fire doors, exit signs, or locked doors will be subject to conduct via our UNK system and legal repercussions of their actions.

Single Rooms

There are a limited number of designated single rooms on campus. Single rooms are not guaranteed and provided on a limited basis.

Liability/Disruption of Services

The Office of Residence Life is not responsible for the continuation of food, mail, custodial, heating, maintenance, or security service at normal level in the event of a natural disaster, strike, or lockout of public employees or suppliers' employees, power-water-sewer interruptions from on-or-off campus sources, or in the event of other catastrophic events beyond the control or reasonable anticipation of Residence Life.

Life in the Residence Halls

As a result of the student experience at UNK, students will be bold difference makers in their communities. Through our curriculum focus and student leadership initiatives: Community Council, RHA, NRHH, and student employment opportunities, we foster a vibrant community for our on-campus population. We encourage students to learn how their actions affect others and make choices that strengthen relationships and communities. We understand that conflict may arise during the school year. Small conflicts can build up into a major situation, if left unaddressed. It is important to approach interpersonal conflict in an appropriate and respectful manner. Hall Staff are available to assist with mediation as needed, but do not wait until it is too late.

Resident Responsibilities

Upon moving into the residence halls, residents are responsible for the following:

- Knowing and adhering to the rules and regulations of the State, University, and Residence Halls as stated in this handbook.
- Attending floor socials and meetings hosted by Residence Life staff.
- Attending activities that occur within the resident's assigned room. Even if not present or involved in a policy violation, residents may be held responsible.
- Chaperone guests and monitor their conduct while present in the halls. Residents will be subject to disciplinary action because of their visitor's behavior.
- Residents are expected to remain in their assigned living space unless staff have granted prior approval for a room change. Unauthorized room switches or occupying a different space without permission are not permitted.
- Abide by LOPERS community standards of living on campus.

Floor President & Community Council (CC)

Each year we interview students to be our floor presidents in the residence halls. These students engage with us in activities that assist them in becoming leaders in their communities. The floor presidents and other student representatives are involved in CC which is designed to create activities to enhance the community within the building. Students also can voice to issues on campus and work on projects that grow out of the interests of hall residents. Look for information on how to get involved and for meeting times and locations. Most CCs meet Tuesday at 8:00 PM.

Each Residence Hall's Community Council is responsible for sending student representatives to the Residence Hall Association (RHA) meeting to give voice to greater issues on campus. Residence Hall Association meets at 5:30 on Monday evenings.

The Fraternity/Sorority Life Housing Board is the community council for FSL Representatives. Representatives to the FSL Housing Board are appointed by each chapter. They must live in the designated FSL housing and are usually the chapter's House Manager.

Residence Hall Association (RHA)

RHA works with the Floor Presidents to help host campus social activities and provide feedback to administration about living on campus. RHA is the overall representative governing body for the residence halls. RHA promotes a positive on-campus living environment by addressing and representing the residence hall system as a unit in determining issues and concerns affecting all on-campus students.

National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH)

NRHH consists of the top 1% of students living in the residence halls who have shown outstanding recognition, service and leadership. NRHH promotes such activities as "Of the Month" awards in programming and individual leadership. NRHH also promotes and sponsors programs which encourage leadership development for students living in the residence halls.

Custodians are not expected to clean up personal messes or dispose of personal trash. Excessive messes may result in charges or access to convenient amenities being removed.

Health and Safety Inspections

Periodic health and safety inspections are conducted by Residence Life staff. The intent of these inspections is for preventative and corrective action. Residents will be given 24-hour notice prior to the inspections. If a room does not meet minimal health and safety standards, residents will be asked to address the issues in a timely manner. Items found that may be illegal or in violation of Residence Hall policy will be documented and may be asked to be removed within 24 hours.

A resident will receive written confirmation of any items confiscated from his/her room. Items that are confiscated and returned must be removed from the residence hall and campus as directed by the hall staff. Unclaimed items will be donated or disposed of after 15 business days.

This environment includes student rooms, living areas, hallways, stairwells, rest rooms, public areas, and exterior grounds facilities. Students should not attempt to repair damages on their own. The University will be responsible for making such repairs and will charge for damages accordingly. All costs are subject to change due to rising cost of materials, goods, and labor. Federal Aid will be applied toward any type of housing penalty charge incurred by the resident or community in which they are living.

Room Changes

Students are required to stay in their assigned rooms. If students are having issues with their roommates, they will need to reach out to a hall staff member to help mediate the issue(s). If a hall staff member feels that a room change is needed, the student will be directed to contact the Hall Coordinator. Students will then be given directions to complete the Room Change Request Form.

Students moving rooms without following proper protocol will be subjected to a $100 administrative fee which will be added to their student account in MyBLUE.

Opportunities to change rooms may be limited throughout the year depending on room availability.

All room changes will be considered on an individual basis. The Office of Residence Life will not consider requests based on protected status such as race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and/or political affiliation. Please see UNK's Non-discrimination and Harassment Policy Statement for more information.

<https://www.unk.edu/about/compliance/discrimination-and-harassment/index.php>.

It may become necessary to assign students to a temporary room. If a student is assigned to a temporary room, the Office of Residence Life will notify the student as soon as possible. Room changes for any reason must be approved by the Office of Residence Life.

Notification of room moves may not be possible in all circumstances, but we do aim to give 24 hour notice of a new roommate when time allows. Emergency room moves will be made without notice.

Be aware that the staff is dealing with an alleged violation of student responsibility, and this is not an indication of feelings about the student as an individual.

Student Conduct and Residence Life

Policies stated in the Residence Life Handbook are an extension of the University of Nebraska at Kearney's Student Code of Conduct. On-campus residents are required to adhere to both the Student Code of Conduct and the Residence Life Handbook. Failure to comply with the policies stated in the Residence Life Handbook and/or Student Code of Conduct may be documented and referred to the Student Code of Conduct office.

Student Rights

Any time a student goes through the Student Code of Conduct process they have the following rights. The following information regarding student rights comes directly from the Student Code of Conduct:

Per Article IV, Section 2.5 of the UNK Student Code of Conduct, please be advised of the following rights and responsibilities:

- You will be advised of the source and nature of the misconduct complaint that has been filed.
- You are entitled to be accompanied by legal counsel or an advisor at your expense at any meeting or hearing relevant to the misconduct alleged in the complaint.
- You are under no obligation at any time to admit the misconduct alleged or to make any other statement at any meeting or hearing relevant to the misconduct alleged.
- Any statement that you may make can be used against you the student in accordance with the Disciplinary Procedures.

The Student Conduct Process

Students who have potentially violated the Student Code of Conduct policy will be documented and referred to the Student Code of Conduct office. Once documentation has been received it will be reviewed by a hearing officer who will then determine the next steps. If a violation has potentially occurred, the hearing officer will contact the involved student(s) via email about setting up a hearing. Information and specifics about the code of conduct process will be given in the initial email communication.

At the start of a conduct hearing, a student is given the choice between an administrative disposition or a University Conduct Board hearing. An administrative disposition is an individual meeting between the conduct officer and the student(s) involved in the potential violation. The results of an administrative disposition are determined by the conduct officer and agreed to by the student(s) involved in the hearing. If a student does not agree with the outcome of the administrative hearing and/or fails to sign and return the administrative disposition form within three days, the conduct case will be referred to the University Conduct Board for a hearing.

The University Conduct Board is made up of Faculty, Staff and Students. The University Conduct board will hear the case and make a decision. The University Conduct Board's decision may appeal but only for the following reasons:

- The information presented to and received by the Conduct Board was not sufficient to support its decision.
- The sanctions imposed by the Conduct Board were excessive and/or not in keeping with the gravity of the misconduct.
- The Conduct Board failed to follow the Disciplinary Procedures and that as a result of such failure the Student or RSO did not receive a fair and impartial hearing.

Should an appeal occur, the case will be heard by the University Appeal Board for a final decision. The appeal board is made up of UNK faculty, staff and students who are separate from the University Conduct Board.

Detailed policies and procedures for conducting hearings can be found within the University Of Nebraska Student Code Of Conduct.

Students expelled from the residence halls remain liable for all Residence Life costs and meal plan fees and are not eligible for refunds for the full occupancy period of the UNK Housing Contract. Depending on the seriousness of the violation a referral may be made to the Assistant Dean of Students.
