

TSLC Community Conversations

Scholars will have the opportunity to:

1. Interact with featured guests in a casual setting to learn about UNK's academic colleges
2. Network with UNK administrators and TSLC staff
3. Connect with TSLC students who have shared interests

Mantor Hall Main Lounge

Thompson Scholars can access the Mantor Hall Main Lounge through the exterior doors on the Southeast side of Mantor Hall using their ID cards. The TSLC logo is on the exterior door. Once inside, take a left to enter the hallway to access the Mantor Hall Main Lounge.

Wednesday, September 6th, 3:30 – 4:30 PM

Featured Guest: Dr. Tim Jares, Dean of the College of Business & Technology

- What degree programs are offered through the College of Business & Technology?
- What opportunities are there for experiential learning?
- What student resources are available through your college?
- What are some success stories from the College of Business & Technology?

Wednesday, October 4th, 3:30 – 4:30 PM

Featured Guest: Dr. Paul Twigg, Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences

- What degree programs are offered through the College of Arts & Sciences?
- What opportunities are there for experiential learning?
- What student resources are available through your college?
- What are some success stories from the College of Arts & Sciences?

Wednesday, November 1st, 3:30 – 4:30 PM

Featured Guest: Dr. Mark Reid, Dean of the College of Education

- What degree programs are offered through the College of Education?
- What opportunities are there for experiential learning?
- What student resources are available through your college?
- What are some success stories from the College of Education?

Refreshments will be served. A door prize will be awarded at each session; scholars must be present at the time of the drawing to win. We look forward to seeing you!