

REDUCED COURSE LOAD (RCL)

APPLICATION FOR F-1 & J-1 STUDENTS TO BE ENROLLED LESS THAN FULL TIME

Immigration Regulation: 8CFR214.2 (F)(6)(iii) Reduced Course Load

“The designated school official [DSO] may allow an F-1 student to engage in less than a full course of study... Except as otherwise noted, a reduced course load must consist of at least six semester ...or half the clock hours required for a full course of study [Undergraduates 6 hours; Graduates 4.5 hours]. A student who drops below a full course of study without the prior approval of the DSO will be considered out of status.”

General rule – international students can only be under-enrolled first semester and last semester

Reduced Course Load Instructions

International students on F-1 visas who do not intend to take a full course load (Undergraduate 12 hours; Graduate 9 hours) must get prior approval from International Student Services before registering for below full-time for Fall, Spring, or the first semester in a new program.

- If approved for a reduced course load, students are required to take a minimum of 6 credits at UNK (except for a medical condition/ or taking final semester).
- Requests should be submitted by the first week of classes for the requested semester.
- A new Reduced Course Load Request form must be submitted each semester of less than full-time enrollment.
- Unless the reduced course load is for completion of the degree in the final semester or the student is cross enrolled, students authorized for a reduced course load are not eligible for on-campus employment.
- USCIS does not consider financial difficulties as a valid reason for enrolling less than full time.
- USCIS regulations, do not allow for employment for students who are enrolled less than full time.
