

Level 1 Waiver Exam

The Level 1 Waiver exam allows new drivers to begin driving prior to completion of the 11 hour or 3 hour Level 1 course. Please contact the Nebraska Safety Center at (308) 865-1550 to receive registration information.

The Level 1 waiver exam is a 125 question online test that must be completed within one week of registration. The student must arrange for a proctor to monitor the exam and submit the required documentation. Guides, notes or other study materials may not be used when taking the exam. Students must correctly answer 100 of 125 questions in order to receive a Level 1 waiver.

The Level 1 waiver is good for 60 days. A Level 1 course must be taken within that 60-day period. The cost for a Level 1 waiver will be $75.00 per student. The cost is billed to the employer unless other arrangements are made prior to taking the exam.

In addition to the Level 1 waiver certification, the driver must pass a medical examination within 90 days of application. The physician documents this examination by completing a form prescribed by the Department of Transportation. This form (Medical Examination Report) is available on the Department of Education website at:
