I’M ADMITTED! Now What?

FIRST: HAVE YOU CLAIMED YOUR STUDENT ID?

Visit trueyou.nebraska.edu/SelfService

This portal will let you claim your identity. Click “Claim Your ID” and follow the on-screen prompts.

Once you have set up your account, you can access the portals below:

ABOUT YOUR NUID

What is it?
Your NUID is your Nebraska University Identification number that is assigned to you.

How do I look up my number?
You can look up your NUID (and username) from the Self Service page, found on the right under “Manage Accounts.”

AFTER SETTING UP YOUR ACCOUNT, BOOKMARK THESE TOOLS:
(You will use these frequently as a UNK student!)

TrueYou
trueyou.nebraska.edu

Login is your NUID and password you created to claim your ID
TrueYou allows you to manage your account information simply and easily, including:
• Change Password
• Lookup NUID or Username
• Forgot Password
• Enroll in Two-Factor Authentication

MyBlue
myblue.unk.edu

Login is your NUID and password you created to claim your ID
Use MyBlue to:
• Manage your enrollment (register, drop and/or add classes/ find books required for the course)
• Check your financial aid
• Access personal information
• View your account and pay tuition and fees
• View your degree audit and advisor information

LoperMail
Student Email Access

LoperMail addresses for undergraduate students will be assigned as part of their orientation process. A graduate student’s LoperMail address is assigned AFTER registration for classes. (This process may take 24-48 hours after registration.)
How to access your Loper Mail account for the first time:
1. Log in to your MyBLUE account with your NUID and password.
2. In the left column under “Profile,” click “email addresses” Your Loper Mail address contains your UNK username. (Everything before the “@” is your username.) Example: username@lopers.unk.edu

Students must use LoperMail for all UNK email communication.

Canvas
canvas.unk.edu

Login is your UNK username (found in your LoperMail address) and the password set up for your NUID.

What is Canvas?
• Canvas is a Learning Management System. It will act as the “online classroom” for all your online courses.
• You can comment on discussions, submit assignments, view lectures and more through Canvas.

Courses you have registered for will appear in Canvas on (or before) the first day of your course term.

24/7 Help Desk - The UNK Help Desk is available 24/7 to assist you with technology issues. To contact the Help Desk, call 308.865.8363 or email support@nebraska.edu. For a full list of services or to access their online chat, go to unk.edu/offices/its/help_desk
